

What is Restorative Justice?

It allows victims to get their voice back, not as a victim but as a survivor.

What are Restorative Cities?

It is where people, schools, associations and law enforcement professionals join together to enhance the self-worth, belonging and the quality of life for the people living in the cities.

Makes vulnerable people feel less isolated

What is Restorative Justice in regards to Sexual Violence?

Can help sex offenders also in returning back into the community

Hosts meetings to help start the conversations about sexual violence

Takes into account the effects of sexual violence on victims of secondary victimisation

Encourages victims to rewrite their story